

Ask A Farmer Participant Farms

Buck Homestead

Contact: Stacia Buck

buckstacia@gmail.com

720.341.8411

Buck Homestead has milking goats, bees, a greenhouse garden, alpaca...and a pet pig. We are here to learn and share ideas and knowledge!

Lucky Acres Alpaca and Hobby Farm

Contact: Tonya Roche

<https://lucky-acres-alpaca.square.site>

301.848.2574

Lucky Acres Alpaca and Hobby Farm provides eggs, whole chickens, jams, teas, alpaca rovings, and spinning lessons. We also raise our own meat rabbits and milking goats in the true homestead spirit.

Ponderosa Plains Farm

Contact: Robert and Sheila Hammervold

<https://ponderosaplains.com>

303.918.5700

Ponderosa Plains Farm is a lavender farm in Elizabeth, Colorado. We sell honey, eggs, jams, oils, soaps, and other lavender products. We also host visitors at our short-term rental: Riders' Retreat.

The Twisted Shed

Contact: David and Kathie Dagliesh

<https://raisinbredalpacas.square.site>

303.915.3702

The Twisted Shed is a natural, fiber, yarn & clothing store located on an operating Alpaca ranch. We offer spinning and weaving classes and are an authorized Ashford Distributor. Come see us or shop online!

The Elbert County Agricultural Alliance is a 501(c)3 non-profit dedicated to promoting agriculture related businesses and providing education on homesteading skills.

ElbertCountyAgAlliance.org